Any misuse by you of the Services or other breach of your obligations under this Agreement will entitle us to suspend the provision of the Services or terminate this Agreement at our discretion.

You shall keep your password and PIN confidential and you must tell us immediately if you suspect or believe that another person has discovered or is using your PIN without your permission. Where we reasonably believe that your PIN has been discovered and/or used by another person without your knowledge or permission, or where in our reasonable opinion it is necessary to do so, we shall deactivate your PIN and allocate you with a new PIN.

- 4.5 All use of the Services contracted for by you as the account holder, whether or not authorised by you, will be deemed your use and you will be responsible in all respects for all such use, including for payment of all charges attributable to your account (e.g., for On Demand TV Events, merchandise ordered via Internet, interactive services, international long distance telephony charges, etc.). We are entitled to assume that any communications made through the Services or from the Network location at which you receive the Services are your communications or have been authorised by you.

Depending on the nature of the Interactive Services, the third party may bill you directly or we may bill you on your regular bill, in which case you are responsible for payment as per the payment obligations in this Agreement.

- 4.7 The Services and the Equipment are only provided under this Agreement for residential customers and are for residential, non-commercial use only. The Services or any part of them cannot be sold for money or money's worth. We have no liability, whether due to our negligence or otherwise, for any losses incurred by any business, trade or profession carried on by you or any other person using the Services or the Equipment. You are not allowed, by law, to show the Services to the public where an admission or usage fee is charged for doing so.
- 4.8 You may not use the Services (1) to send a message or communication which is offensive, abusive, indecent, obscene, a nuisance or hoax; or (2) to cause annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety; or (3) fraudulently; or (4) in connection with a criminal offence. As well as any other rights we may have, if in our reasonable opinion we believe the Services have been used in breach of this Condition, we may immediately suspend the Services and/or terminate this Agreement and/or retain the whole or any part of any deposit or Charges paid.

5. Access and Installation

- 5.1 Our obligation to provide the Services and Equipment depends on our obtaining the necessary licences, wayleaves, consents, or other permissions to enable us to provide you with the Services. We shall have no liability whatsoever to provide you with the Services and Equipment if they cannot be obtained. Any suggested date of connection is not binding upon us and we give no undertaking whatsoever that we will connect the Equipment or Services on, or by, a certain date, and we will not be liable to you for any delay in connecting the Equipment or Services.

- 5.2 In order to perform our obligations under this Agreement and in consideration of the Services provided to you, you hereby grant us such licence in respect of your land, buildings and premises ('your land') as is necessary for us (including our employees and authorised representatives) to provide the Services to you and our other customers, including but not limited to, from time to time, upon giving you reasonable notice (save in any emergency) to enter those parts of your land to install, maintain, adjust, repair, replace, renew, upgrade, inspect or remove, and to keep installed and to operate at or on your land, Equipment and/or telecommunications apparatus. You will at your own expense provide or procure whatever further rights over your land we require from any landlord and/or successor in title and/or any other person with an interest in your land whose consent is legally required to enable us to exercise the rights over land granted pursuant to this paragraph and you will enter into any necessary additional documentation to give effect to the grant of such rights. Each party shall at all times comply with all reasonable instructions of the other party or any third party in relation to the exercise of any rights over your land obtained in accordance with this paragraph.

- 5.3 Your failure to comply with paragraph 5.2 may result in withdrawal of the Services and termination of this Agreement, and if this happens we will be entitled to continue to enter upon your land to enable us to provide the Services to neighbouring customers and/or remove all or part of our Equipment.
- 5.4 You will indemnify us for all installation costs and expenses that we incur connecting you up to the Network and for all costs and expenses incurred by us for removal of any Equipment and/or telecommunications apparatus from your land and against liability for all third party claims, in the event that you or any person or a successor in title with an interest in your land insists that we remove any or all Equipment and/or telecommunications apparatus from your land.

- 5.5 We will make every effort to site the Equipment in a location of your choice and will endeavour to comply with any reasonable requests you may have regarding the routing of cables. However in some instances this may not be possible, for technical and other reasons, and if this is the case then we will indicate to you what alternative arrangements for cable routing (if any) we can make. If, for any reason, we are unable to route the cable or you do not accept our routing proposal, this Agreement shall terminate, provided that where the cabling relates only to the provision of certain Services, this Agreement may, at our option, terminate in relation to those Services only.

- 5.6 You agree to provide at your own cost, suitable facilities, including secure electrical supply and other installations and fittings, for the Equipment and you will comply with our reasonable requests and directions in this regard. You agree that you or a person authorised by you (who is over 18 years of age) will be present at your premises during that part of the connection process that takes place there. You may need to prepare your premises in accordance with our reasonable instructions before the Equipment can be installed and Services can be provided to you. You have responsibility for obtaining any rights and permissions necessary in order for us to connect and maintain the Equipment.
- 5.7 You warrant that you are the current occupier of the Address, and are either the freeholder of the Address or a tenant of the premises under a lease of 12 months or more; and that you are over 18 years of age and legally entitled to sign a contract.

- 5.8 The terms in this paragraph, including the licence granted by you to us, shall continue in force for as long as we hold the licence, notwithstanding termination of this Agreement.

6. Charges and Payment

- 6.1 You must pay all the Charges for which we bill you, together with any Value Added Tax and any other taxes (at applicable rates from time to time) which apply in relation to any Charges payable under this Agreement. We will bill you one billing period in advance for the Services. You must pay your bill by the date specified in your bill. You will be liable for the Charges from the day on which we first make the Services available to you unless we notify you otherwise. You agree that you are liable for any Charges incurred on your account irrespective of whether those Charges were incurred by you or anybody else with or without your consent. Unless stated otherwise, all prices quoted by us and listed in our Price List are inclusive of VAT and all Charges that appear on your bill are inclusive of VAT. We may vary our Charges from time to time. We may alter your billing date or billing frequency. Our Customer Charter includes explanations on billing frequency, non-payment of bills, disconnection and resolution of disputes. Should you pay your bills via our electronic billing facilities additional terms and conditions apply.

- 6.2 Late Fees: If you do not make your payments on time we may withdraw any discount we may have given to you for payment in advance or for any other reason and we may also charge you a Late Fee as per the Price List.

- 6.3 Other Charges: We may also charge you for the following, in advance or otherwise, where applicable, including but not limited to: Connection Charges, Initial Payment Charges, Usage Charges, Access Charges, Cancellation Charges, Paper Bill Fee, Itemisation Fee and other Miscellaneous Charges. If you want to change any of the Services agreed to, we may charge you a reasonable administration fee. Any such fees will appear in the Price List or in the other documentation that we provide to you. To the extent permissible by law, we may charge you a fee for not using a particular payment method or provide you with a discount for using a particular payment method.
- 6.4 Direct Debit: Unless otherwise determined by us in our absolute discretion and notified to you, you will be required to pay your bills by Direct Debit. This Agreement gives us authority to alter your variable Direct Debit instructions according to the Charges from time to time applicable to the Services. We shall notify your relevant bank or building society each month of the sums due to us from your account. We are entitled to charge you a reasonable administration fee if your Direct Debit order fails or you otherwise default in making payments to us. If your bank or building society is unable to make payment in any one month we reserve the right to immediately suspend any Direct Debit facility and demand a different method of payment.

- 6.5 We are entitled to calculate charges for any period in order to bring your account into line with our billing cycle, and for that purpose we reserve the right to add the whole or part of any month's (or other billing period's) Charges to future bills.
- 6.6 After the Minimum Period has expired, if you terminate this Agreement or any of the Services between the dates when we issue bills to you, you must pay all Charges which have accrued since the last bill was calculated and the proportion of any Access Charges and/or Rental Charges which has accrued on a pro-rata daily basis up to the date of termination or cancellation of the Services.

7. Deposits and Account Limits

- 7.1 We are entitled to carry out a credit check on you and to disclose information regarding your payment history to the usual credit agencies. If we conduct a check of your credit worthiness and the results of that check do not satisfy us or if we reasonably decide that all our customers or a certain category of our customers must pay a deposit, we may require you to pay a deposit of a reasonable amount determined by us. We may require at any time that you pay such deposit as we believe to be reasonable in the circumstances, as security for the Equipment and against non-payment of our bills or any other breach any of the provisions of this Agreement.

- 7.2 We may use all or part of this deposit for payment of any outstanding Charges, including, without limitation, any amount due for the replacement value and/or costs of repair of the Equipment; or keep all or part of your deposit if you do not report to us the unauthorised reception of channels or programmes.
- 7.3 We will repay any deposit held (or the balance of any deposit where any part of it has been applied by us in accordance with this Agreement) to you as soon as you have for a period of at least 12 months (or such other period as we determine in our complete discretion) paid to us all Charges due under this Agreement on the due date(s) for payment of those Charges; or if not already repaid as per above, on termination of this Agreement, if you have paid to us all Charges due and, subject to your responsibilities in respect of loss or damage to the Equipment under this Agreement and if the Equipment has been returned to us. If you breach any of the provisions of this Agreement you may at our discretion forfeit any deposit as required to compensate us for any losses.

- 7.4 We may require you to increase the level of the deposit held by us or require a further deposit from you of a reasonable amount at any time if in our reasonable opinion we believe that your financial circumstances have substantially changed and/or there has been a significant material increase in the Charges you are incurring since you signed this Agreement; or you are persistently late in making your payments to us or you breach any of the provisions of this Agreement or we have used all or part of a deposit in accordance with the above; and/or you have exceeded your Account Limit with us.

- 7.5 In the circumstances set out above, we may, as well as or instead of imposing a deposit, restrict the level of Services we provide to you, only allow certain methods of payment and/or impose on your account a limit that the total unpaid Charges accrued on that account over a certain period are not permitted to exceed, based on the Charges we reasonably expect you to incur on your account ('Account Limit'). We will inform you of this Account Limit. You are not allowed to incur Charges which exceed your Account Limit over the period notified to you. If you exceed your Account Limit we have the right to request payment of a deposit and if you do not pay this deposit we may suspend the Services until you do so or we may terminate this Agreement.

8. Provision of Information and Data Protection

- 8.1 You are required to promptly and accurately give us all the information that we request so that we can perform our obligations under this Agreement. You must also inform us immediately of any change to any details you have provided to us, including changes to the Customer Provided Apparatus. - 8.2 We may, subject to the relevant legal and regulatory provisions, whilst you are a customer and for as long as necessary for the specified purposes after you terminate purchasing Services, use your personal information together with other information for the purposes of administration, credit scoring, customer services, training, marketing, tracking use of our services (including processing call, usage, billing, viewing and interactive data), profiling your usage and purchasing preferences and providing you with services. We may disclose your personal information to Virgin Media or any Group Company and our sub-contractors and agents for these purposes. For additional details regarding your privacy and our use of your personal information, please see our Privacy Policy, located at virginmedia.ie. - 8.3 From time to time, we, or a third party acting on our behalf, may contact you by mail, telephone, email, other electronic messaging or fax with information about our products and services (including discounts and special offers). If you do not wish to receive marketing or promotional information from us, please contact us in writing or by calling 1908. If you contact us, please state whether you would prefer not to receive any promotional material from us or whether you would like to receive information from us by some but not other methods (the options are: by mail, telephone, electronic messaging services, fax and email). Remember that if you say you do not wish to receive any promotional material from us or our third parties, this will preclude you from receiving any of our special offers or promotions.

- 8.4 We will only discuss your account with you or with an authorised user designated to us by you. For internal operational reasons or for training purposes, we may occasionally record or monitor telephone calls that you may make to our Customer Service Line or Customer Service Department. We will keep these instances to a minimum.

- 8.5 Should you choose to terminate your relationship with us, you agree that we will be free to contact you for marketing purposes post the termination of your contract unless you advise us otherwise. We will contact you within 12 months of the termination of your contract to tell you about products and services that we believe might be of interest to you. You are free to opt out of receiving these communications. If you wish to opt out of these post contract communications please contact us by calling 1908, or writing to us at Virgin Media Ireland Limited, LEDP Building, Roxboro, Limerick.
- 8.6 You acknowledge that we may co-operate with any court, tribunal, regulatory body, police authority or other Competent Authority in any investigations or proceedings concerning you or your use of the Services. This may include disclosing communications transmitted via the Services or other details regarding your use of the Services to such authorities.

9. Equipment

- 9.1 We will supply you with the Equipment to facilitate provision of the Services. You must not use the Equipment for any other purpose and must comply with all manufacturers' instructions and any reasonable instructions that we may give you regarding the use of the Equipment. The Equipment belongs to us (unless you specifically purchase equipment from us under a written purchase agreement) and you must not give anyone else any rights over it. We may add to or substitute it as necessary to provide the Services or for other valid reasons. You agree not to do or allow anything to be done at your Address that may cause damage to or interfere with the Equipment or prevent easy access to it or recovery of it.

- 9.2 We may need to supply you with additional equipment in order to provide you with the Services you request. If Equipment is provided to you separately, you may have to pay our reasonable additional charges. Such additional equipment may be subject to a separate agreement.
- 9.3 From the time we deliver the Equipment to you until you return the Equipment to us you must take reasonable care of it. You must not and must not allow anyone else (other than our representatives) to add to, interfere or modify the Equipment in any way and the splitting of lines and or cable by you is strictly not allowed. As well as any other rights we may have, such action may result in our suspending the Services, terminating the Agreement and/or our retaining the whole or a part of any deposit.

- 9.4 On termination of this Agreement, or on cancellation of any Services or Packages requiring Equipment, you shall within fourteen (14) days of the date of termination or cancellation, unless otherwise agreed with us, arrange for us to collect at your residence at no cost to you or return to us in our offices at your own expense, the Equipment. If you fail to do so, we reserve the right to continue to charge you for the Services until the Equipment is returned or to charge you an unrecoverable equipment charge. You will be invoiced for the costs of repair or loss or damage to the Equipment under this Condition.
- 9.5 From time to time we may request you to confirm for us the location of the Equipment. If we do so request you must respond to us promptly in good faith. You agree to notify us immediately of any loss or damage to any part of the Equipment.

- 9.6 You shall not be responsible for any loss or damage to the Equipment to the extent that it is caused by us or our employees or is due to a manufacturing or design fault; or is due to fair wear and tear. You agree that you shall be responsible for any loss or damage to the Equipment due to any other cause, regardless of how it happens. Willful destruction or abuse of the Equipment by you will result in reasonable additional Charges being made.
- 9.7 You are responsible for ensuring that the Equipment is at all times kept safely and properly used and in this regard you agree:
- (i) While the Equipment is not in use, electricity supplied to it is not turned off and that it remains in the standby/rest mode;
 - (ii) That you shall not dispose of or deal with any of the Equipment in any way by, for example, trying to sell it or hire it to anyone else, or by putting it up as security for a loan, mortgage or charge, or allow any of the Equipment to be seized under any legal process. You shall not move the Equipment to another location without our prior written consent;

- (iii) That you shall not remove, tamper with or obliterate any words or labels on the Equipment; and
 - (iv) That you shall take proper care at all times to prevent the loss or theft of the Equipment.
- 9.8 Subject to this Agreement, and except as per paragraph 20, you may use your own Customer-Provided Apparatus in conjunction with the Equipment but we do not warrant that the Equipment is compatible with or will work with customer-provided apparatus. We will not be liable in any way for any loss or damage which is caused to your Customer- Provided Apparatus or any data stored thereon arising as a result of its use in conjunction with our Equipment.

10. Maintenance

- 10.1 We shall provide such preventative and corrective maintenance services as we consider necessary for the proper functioning of the Network and Equipment and for the provision of the Services to you. Such maintenance may disrupt the provision by us of the Services under this Agreement. We will endeavour to give you as much notice of such disruption as is reasonably possible.
- 10.2 You agree that you will notify us of any defect in the operation or performance of the Services by telephoning the Customer Service line (details of which appear on our Website) or by writing to the Customer Service Department (the address of which appears on our website) who will always aim to respond as promptly as possible following notification of a defect.

10.3 Where you prevent us from carrying out our maintenance (at a time previously agreed and arranged with you) or if the maintenance necessary is the result of any one or more of the following, then we will be entitled to charge you a service fee (which will be notified to you from time to time by our published literature and is set out in our Price List):

- (i) Misuse or neglect of, or accidental or willful damage to, the Equipment; or
- (ii) Fault in, or other problem associated with, your own apparatus, software or any telecommunications system not run by us; or

28.Disclaimer of Liability and Indemnification/ Emergency Services/ Connected Services

28.1 Digital Telephony telephone service provides access to emergency services free of charge. However, Digital Telephony services depend on access to an electrical supply and the internet. If there is an internet or electricity outage for any reason, such outage will prevent all Digital Telephony Services, including the dialling of emergency services and any other connected services, including but not limited to alarm systems or medical monitoring systems, from functioning. In the event of such an outage we advise customers to use alternative methods, such as mobile telephones, to access emergency services or any other connected services. We also advise customers to plan

28.2 It may not be possible to accurately determine the exact geographic location of a Digital Telephony caller. An emergency operator or other operator answering your call may not have your physical location or address information, so you must be prepared to give them this information. Until you give the emergency operator or other operator your location, they may not be able to despatch help if the call is not completed, is dropped or is disconnected, or if you are unable to speak.

28.3 There may be a greater possibility of network congestion and/or reduced speed in the routing of calls to emergency services or connected services made utilizing the Service as compared to traditional calls to emergency services or connected services dialled over traditional public telephone networks. You should inform any household residents, guests and other third persons who may be present at the physical location where you utilize the Services of the important differences in and limitations of Digital Telephony dialling as compared with traditional phone service, as it relates to access to emergency services and connected services.

28.4 We do not have any control over whether, or the manner in which, calls using our Digital Telephony service are answered or addressed by any emergency response centre or connected services provider. We disclaim all responsibility for the conduct of emergency response centres and connected services providers. Neither us nor our officers or employees may be held liable for any claim, damage, or loss, and you hereby waive any and all such claims or causes of action, arising from or relating to accessing emergency services or connected services unless such claims or causes of action arose from our gross negligence or wilful misconduct. You shall defend, indemnify, and hold us and our officers, directors, employees, affiliates and agents and any other service provider who furnishes services to you in connection with the Service harmless, from any and all claims, losses, damages, fines, penalties, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees) by, or on behalf of, you or any third party relating to the absence, failure or outage of the Service, including the inability of any user of the Service to be able to access emergency services or connected services.

28.5 Virgin Media will use reasonable endeavours to guarantee the security of your calls, however, the security of your calls is not guaranteed and we accept no liability with respect to call confidentiality.

28.6 Further information on Digital Telephony telephone services can be found on the Commissioner for Communications Regulation (ComReg) website at <http://www.comreg.ie/>, (in particular ComReg Document No. 05/50).
